

Questions to Ask	Answer
When was your library first opened?
Who was its first director?
Who and how many citizens have served as Trustees for your library?
What services and resources has your library provided over the years?
Does our board have a code of ethics? When was it last updated?
Where can I learn more about the ethical responsibilities of a public officer?
How do I know if I have a conflict of interest? What's the best way to disclose it?
Where can I find the bylaws?
How long has each of my fellow trustees served?
Who is the Chair of the board?
What is the proper chain of communication for questions that come up? (Who do you go to first?)
How much time should I plan to spend on the work of a trustee each month?
What should I do if I need to resign my appointment?

Your Questions	Who will you ask?	Answer